964	Gróf L. - Sárvár Postatörténete / The Postal History of Sárvár From pre-stamp till 1990. László Gróf's fine 'Homeland' postal history study of the small (but important) town in western Hungary is a model for such studies. Hardbound & richly illustrated (including 12 colour plates) it includes a 37 page English précis. Full of interest! [#294 d:1994 p=219 w:590g X=24x17 L:HE]	£4
965	L. G. Bázlik - Ungarische Banknoten 1926-1975 - Nettokatalog. A very handy cataolgue covering the Pengő currency and the post hyperinflation Forint notes. In b/w but clearly printed on decent paper. [d:1974 p=82 w:130g X=21x15 L:G]	£4
966	Adamovszky I. - Magyar Bankjegy Katalógus 1846-2009 - Speciál. Nicely produced full colour specialist catalogue of Hungarian banknotes. This is easier to use with a more general banknote catalogue, but it includes a wealth of detail not found elsewhere, notably details and illustrations of not just printing varieties and 'specimen' perfins but also the many official, semi-official, & propaganda controls & overprints from 1918-20 (including successor states and Soviet republic) and from the similar turmoil 1945-46. Also some preliminary designs of leading banknote artists, such as Horváth Endre. [d:2009 p=356 w:610g X=24x17 L:H]	£5
967	Flóderer, I. - "Handbook of the Hungarian Revenues" . A single volume exploring this very rich field and including the revenue stationery. Although recent specialist books have superseded much, there are still a number of popular collecting areas only covered by Floderer (especially closing bands and sales tax stamps). Hardback, with English and German introduction & index. Vgc. [d:1990 p= 382 w:940g X= 24x17 L:H]	£8

975	O. Hornung - The Illustrated Encyclopedia of Stamp Collecting. This hardback tome pretty much does what it says on the tin, covering both the history of the postage stamp and a huge variety of issues, uses, unusual features and much sensible advice on how to form a collection, mount it and look after it. Profusely illustrated with many colour plates. [d:1970 p=319 w:1.4kg X=27x21 L:E]	£2
976	Allen & Silverstone - Stamp Collector's Guide to Europe. A Philatelic tour of 34 countries featuring Postal Systems, Philatelic Services, Stamp Markets, Stamp Realers, etc. Much information. Probably all out of date! [d=1974 p=309 w:780 X=24x17 L:E]	£1
977	V. Tyler - Philatelic Forgers: Their Lives and Works World-wide. Fascinating & nicely produced hardback study of most of the known 'classic' forgers, including descriptions and illustrations and citations of sources (no least their trials!). And some forgeries are worth more (in interest and in cash!) than the supposedly legitimate productions of today's Postal Administrations! [#273 d:1976 p=60 w:380g X=25x19 L:E]	£6
978	J. Negus - Philatelic Literature: Compilation Techniques and Reference Sources. Just the job for anyone embarking on the task of publishing a philatelic book or editing a philatelic periodical. Includes computer techniques (1991 vintage!). [#253 d:1991 p=293 w: g X= L:E]	£1
979	Blaas/Haunold - AUSTRIACA auf Briefmarken von Europa Austrian topics on European stamps [#310 d:1997 p=47 w:70g X=21x15 L:G]	£1
980	C. le Comte - The Stamps of Mauritius. Beautifully produced little hardback, profusely illustrated in colour, on the history and philately of Mauritius. Just the job for a second collection! Cheap enough to complete such a little place? D:2006 p= 80 w:320g X=19x15 L:E]	£6
